CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall be called "THE SWEDISH COLONIAL SOCIETY."

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society shall be to collect, preserve, and publish records, documents, and other material, printed or in manuscript, and to commemorate events relating to the history of Swedes in America.

ARTICLE III.

Any male person over twenty-one years of age, of good character, shall be eligible to membership. All members shall be elected by the Council, who shall have power to suspend or expel any member who in their judgment may have conducted himself in an improper manner.

ARTICLE IV.

The entire management of the affairs of the Society, including the selection of its officers and the adoption of By-Laws, shall be committed to the Council. The Council shall consist of twenty-five Councillors. Officers of the Society who may not be Councillors shall be ex-officio members of the Council. The Councillors shall be elected by the Society at its Annual Meeting for a term of five years, five each year, except that at the first Annual Meeting five shall be elected for one year, five for two years, five for three years, five for four years, and five for five years. BY-LAWS.

I. The Members of the Society shall consist of two classes, Active and Honorary.

(1) Active Members shall alone have the right to vote at the meetings of the Society, and no other persons shall have any interest or ownership in the property of the Society, real or personal. They shall be elected by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting of the Council on recommendation of the Committee on Election of Members after nomination in writing by an Active Member of the Society in good standing. The annual dues of such members shall be five dollars payable on election, and thereafter on the first day of January of each year in advance, members elected after the first day of September, in any year, not to be liable for the dues of that year. Any such member, by paying at one time the sum of fifty dollars in lieu of annual dues, may become a member for life. If any person elected an Active Member shall fail to pay the annual dues within six months after notification of election, such election shall become null and void. If any Active Member shall allow the annual dues to become more than two years in arrears, his membership shall thereupon cease. In either of the said cases the name of such person may, upon payment of the dues, be thereafter placed upon or restored to the roll of membership by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Council present at any meeting thereof. Active Members, who are Honorary Officers of the Society, shall be exempt from payment of dues.

(2) Honorary Members shall be elected by an unanimous vote of the members present at any meeting of the Council on nomination at a preceding meeting by a member of that body. They shall not be liable for the payment of annual dues.

(3) Women, who shall agree to make an annual payment of three dollars to the Society, may be elected Associates of the Society by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting of the Council on recommendation of any member thereof. If an Associate shall allow the annual dues to become more than two years in arrears, her Associateship shall thereupon cease.

(4) Both Members and Associates shall be entitled to receive copies of all publications of the Society issued during their connection with it.

II. The Annual Meeting of the Society shall be held on the eighth day of April (the twenty-ninth of March, Old Style, date of the first purchase by the Swedes from the Indians A. D. 1638 of land on the river Delaware) or as near that date as convenient, as Council shall elect. Special meetings may be called by the President, or, in his absence, by one of the Vice-Presidents. Ten Active Members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Society.

III. The Officers of the Society shall be an Honorary President, a President, six Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the Council to serve for one year at its first meeting succeeding the Annual Meeting of the Society. The President and Secretary of the Society shall also be President and Secretary of the Council.

(1) The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Society. It shall be his duty, unless unavoidably prevented, to preside at the meetings of the Society and Council, preserve order thereat, appoint all committees when appointments are not otherwise provided for by special resolution, and perform the usual duties appertaining to his office.

THE SWEDISH COLONIAL SOCIETY.

It shall further be his duty to exercise and maintain a general supervision over the affairs of the Society and the conduct of its employees, and to see that its objects, as prescribed by the Constitution and By-laws, and its instructions and those of the Council are duly carried out.

(2) The Vice-Presidents, according to their rank, shall, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and functions of that officer.

(3) The Secretary shall make all preliminary arrangements for and attend the meetings of the Society and Council, and shall keep accurate minutes of the proceedings thereof. He shall be the sole custodian of the seal of the Society, and shall attach the same to such papers as the Society or the Council may direct. He shall have charge of the correspondence of the Society and the Council, other than that appertaining to the other officers and to committees.

(4) The Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the Society. He shall pay all such claims as shall be ordered or approved by the Council and keep proper books of account, which shall be subject, at all times, to the inspection and direction of the Council. All moneys payable to the Society shall be received only by persons specially appointed by the Treasurer for this purpose. He shall, from time to time, as the Council may request it, make a report of the condition of the Treasury, and at the close of each calendar year make an annual report, which shall be laid before the Society at its Annual Meeting.

IV. Stated Meetings of the Council shall be held the first Wednesday of each month, except during July and August, and in January when the first Wednesday falls upon the first day of the month, when the meeting shall be held the following day. Special meetings may be called by the President or Secretary, provided the object of the meeting be stated in the notices of it, and no other business be transacted at said meeting.

V. The Standing Committees of the Society shall be annually appointed by the President immediately after the first meeting of the Council after the Annual Meeting of the Society to serve for the ensuing year, continuing to serve until their successors shall have been appointed. The President shall be ex-officio member of all Standing Committees. They shall consist of three members each, and be four in number, as follows:

- (1) The Committee on Election of Members.
- (2) The Committee on Finance.

- (4) The Committee on Monuments and Memorials.

VI. The Committee on Election of Members shall recommend persons to be admitted to Active Membership in the Society on nomination of such persons in writing by an Active Member of the Society in good standing.

VII. The Committee on Finance shall have supervision of the financial affairs of the Society, and shall in consultation with its Treasurer invest and keep invested the funds of the Society, reporting its action in this regard to the Council at its next meeting.

VIII. The Committee on Library, Collections, and Publications shall have the care and preservation of all books, pamphlets, manuscripts, pictures, and other articles composing the library and collections of the Society, and shall have supervision of all publications issued in the name of the Society.

IX. The Committee on Monuments and Memorials shall have charge of the erection of monuments and memorials under the direction of the Council.

THE SWEDISH COLONIAL SOCIETY.

X. All the property, real and personal, belonging to the Society not held by special trustees or trustees for special purposes, shall be under the charge, control, and management of the Council. All donations and bequests of money to the Society, the disposition of which is not otherwise directed by the donors or testators, and all moneys received in lieu of annual dues as hereinbefore provided, shall be invested under the direction of the Council, the income only to be applied to the support of the Society and the carrying out of the purposes for which it has been established. Such investments shall be known as "The Endowment Fund," and shall not be converted into money except for reinvestment.

XI. The following events shall be commemorated in such manner as the Council may direct.

1. The publication at Gottenburg, Sweden, November 20, 1624 (November 10, 1624, Old Style), by Willem Usselix, of "Manifest und Vertragsbrieff der Australischen Company im Königreich Schweden auffgerichtet." A Warrant authorizing Willem Usselix to organize such a General Trading Company from Sweden to Asia, Africa, America and Magellanica was signed by Gustavus II, Adolphus King of Sweden, December 31, 1624 (December 21, 1624, Old Style).
